Dear Customers, Team Members, Suppliers, and Investors,

In 2022, Chroma Color Corporation continued to make significant steps to promote sustainability and be responsible stewards of our Earth. This includes our commitment to providing sustainable color concentrate materials to our customers, reducing our own waste and energy consumption, and implementing environmentally responsible practices other companies in the plastics industry can also follow.

Our senior leadership team continues to evaluate all current operation and manufacturing practices to continue to build on our 2022 Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) roadmap.

Our Continued Commitment for 2023
